Michael Borowick

Australia Israel Labor Dialogue,

Dear Trudy, Sebastian, and Michael:

Just a brief note to thank the Australian Labor Party for sending us Hannah MacLeod, Courtney Sloane, Cameron Angus and Gino Luglietti during the election last month. We were thrilled to have them here, and the relationship between our parties was strengthened immeasurably as a result. It was also a valuable learning experience for us; this was the first time we can remember receiving a delegation of political advisers during a campaign.

Please pass on our thanks to the rest of the ALP. Israel Labor is proud of our long association with your wonderful party.

We were also terribly sorry to hear about the passing of Richie Benaud last week. We know what a national treasure he was, and he will be sorely missed.

Kind regards,

MK Hilik Bar
